Mumu City News

October 25, 2023

David Wu

Drones are remote-controlled flying machines. Some are tiny, but others are as big as planes. Drones are different from airplanes; they can go to dangerous places because they don't carry people. They can be used for good things and for bad ones. For example, people can use drones to save people's lives. However, bad things can happen with drones. Here is a survey of how people use their drones.

On Oct. 25, 2023, the police in Mumu City caught a man. He used a drone to check if there was anyone inside the house before he broke into it. In fact, the owner of the house was at home, so she called the police when she saw the man. After the bad guy was caught by the police, he told the police he broke into many other houses before. The police said that it was the first time that they heard a bad guy break into houses with the help of a drone. But a study shows that more and more people are using drones to do bad things. The CBA reports that drones have been used to smuggle drugs at least 500 times between 2020 and 2023. It's hard for the police to stop them.
