Dialogue

CD: 14 CD2: 1~2

Tommy: Life's getting difficult for us. That cat is always waiting outside by the hole.

Jerry: If it goes on like this, we'll all die. We must find a way.

Larry: I have an idea. We should kill the cat.

Tommy: How? It's impossible.

Jerry: Although we may not be able to kill the cat, we can do something else. For example, we can hang a bell around his neck.

Larry: That sounds like a good idea! If he moves, the bell will ring, and we'll have enough time to run away.

The Stone Soup

A long time ago, a stranger visited a small town. The people there were not friendly to him. They went inside their homes and closed their doors. The stranger asked, “Excuse me, may I...?” “Go away. There’s nothing for you here,” a person said to him.

“Don’t worry. I just want to make delicious stone soup to share with you all,” the stranger said. He dropped a stone into his pot and started to cook. Later, people started to come and check out the “stone” soup.

“Ah! If I add tomatoes to the soup, it will be wonderful,” said the stranger. Soon, a person gave him some tomatoes. “Wonderful!” said the stranger. “Although the soup is good enough, I still need some beef. Then the soup will be fit for a king.”
